

Hidden Vienna

Vienna: capital or frontier? Within the immaculate geometry of the Ringstrasse, creative and destructive contests of eastern and western cultures have produced a most refined European city in streets, salons, coffee houses and ballrooms.

We shall go in search of the city's unconscious within and beyond its monuments and urban fabric. Artists, architects and friends will lead us on five walks through their own personal Vienna.

Of course we can never truly understand it but to travel together across these elusive spaces will be the greatest discovery of all.

Dagobert Peche, 1915