

Seminar Week

Designing
Urban Welfare,
Stockholm
1930s-2000s

Tutors:
Prof. dr. Tom Avermaete
Dr. Sebastiaan Loosen

Chair for the History and Theory of Urban Design

Prof. dr. Tom Avermaete

Seminar Week	19-26 October 2024, 12-18 Participants
Location	Stockholm, Sweden
Cost framework	B (including hostel, local transport, entry tickets, tours, and a collective dinner; excluding transport to and from Stockholm)

Taking the urban history of Stockholm as our guide, we will visit a series of emblematic projects from the 1930-40s, when the Social Democrats started to formulate the Folkhemmet ideology (the state as ‘the People’s Home’), to the 1950s so-called ABC towns, the 1960-70s Million Programme housing, and to the various urban developments from the 1980s to today, when welfare state policies started to be eroded by neoliberal logics.

More information can be found on our website (see QR-code).

